

VITA

Anne Elizabeth Garber was born in Toronto, Canada on February 8, 1955. She attended Oakridge Secondary School in London, Ontario and the College General et Professionel in Joliette, Quebec, graduating from the University of Ottawa with a B.A. in Linguistics in 1978. In June 1978, she began graduate study in Linguistics at the University of Illinois and received a M.A. in 1980. During her years at the University of Illinois, she held research assistantships in Linguistics and Art History, as well as a teaching assistantship in ESL. During the academeic year 1981-82 she attended the Associated Mennonite Biblical Seminaries in Elkhart, Indiana, after which she spent the years 1982-1985 in Kotoura, Burkina Faso doing linguistic research with Africa Inter-Mennonite Mission. In June 1987, she intends to return to Burkina to continue working for Africa Inter-Mennonite Mission.