About Anne & Daniel Kompaoré

West Africa is an area of the world with much social and political upheaval, where also traditional society is undergoing fundamental changes as people encounter both the Christian faith and Islam. Many people want a better life and are open to change.

In this setting, Daniel and Anne endeavor to make the Bible accessible, understandable, and relevant to the downtrodden, the seeker and the believer through Bible translation consultation, literacy, teaching, and church development.

Daniel provides pastoral leadership to the growing Apostolic Mission Church of Burkina Faso. His passion for education led him to start up several Christian private schools as well as literacy programs in his own language, Moore. He has also planted a church in Ouagadougou.

Anne has served 30 years in Burkina Faso in the areas of linguistics analysis, language development, Bible translation, and Bible teaching. In 2011, she began a consultant ministry called WordShare Services, serving partner organizations in Burkina, Nigeria and other West African countries. Her special passion is developing much needed resources for French speaking translators .

Daniel and Anne married in 1993 after having discovered their common passion for getting the Bible into the hands of all people. At that time, Daniel was the founding director of the newly formed National Bible Translation and Literacy Association. Together they serve the Lord and support each other in their respective ministries. They make their home in Ouagadougou, Burkina Faso.

About Commission To Every Nation

What is CTEN?

CTEN is a servant organization which helps missionaries fulfill the unique vision God has given them. CTEN partners with the missionary's home church to send them to the field. Then, through administrative support CTEN gets funds to the missionary, provides accountability, counsel and helps the missionary remain on the field. Through pastoral care CTEN helps them remain effective and healthy while there.

Missionaries Serving Missionaries

Most of CTEN's home staff raise their own support just as each CTEN Field Missionary does. This allows CTEN to keep overhead to a bare minimum and the vast majority of each donor's contribution to reach the intended missionary and project.

Pastoral Care

A core value of CTEN is caring for God's most valued resource, His people. A Pastoral Care couple personally stays in touch with each missionary from the time of their application, throughout their time on the field and through re-entry to the home culture if the missionary leaves the field. This pastoral care couple works with the missionary's sending church to provide counsel, prayer, support and regular onsite visits to the field of service.

How CTEN missionaries are "paid"?

Like most of its support staff, CTEN missionaries are dependent upon the faithfulness of the Lord and His people for their financial support. Friends, family, churches and others who believe in the work of the missionary send their contributions to CTEN. These contributions can be large or small, sent monthly or periodically.

Each missionary is dependent upon your help to fund and continue their ministry.

How does CTEN afford to operate?

CTEN Canada retains 10% of all donations to fund its home office functions. There is no charge to the missionary for Pastoral Care.
