

Financial Needs for the Anne and Daniel Kompaore ministry 2011

All amounts are in Canadian dollars. All gifts from Canada and the U.S. are eligible for tax deductible receipts. Work expenses and expenditure of special gifts will be appropriately accounted for and reported to the CTEN accountant. Progress in the work will come through our ministry updates. Financial and other details will be available upon request. Feel free to write us with your questions, encouragement, and suggestions!

Regular support includes the following:

- Regular daily needs (food, household supplies and repairs, utility bills, personal needs, vehicle, etc.)
- Salary for full time house help
- Medical coverage
- Canadian Retirement contributions and savings and Income taxes (Anne's)
- Hospitality, generosity for local needs and tithe, vacation, 10% for CTEN
- Regular ministry expenses (local travel*, internet fees, supplies, repairs of work equipment, etc.)

*NOTE: Travel and expenses for scheduled Mennonite Partnership ministries in Orodara (Siamou) and Benin in latter 2011 will be covered by Mennonite Church Canada and Africa Inter-Mennonite Mission. Thank-you!

Monthly support is best maintained through monthly or other regular period giving commitments (trimester, yearly).

Current special needs for 2011. These needs are over and above the monthly support needs:

- $7,123.00 Help in building the Teedpaosgo Apostolic Mission Church in Sector 30, Karpala, Ouagadougou. This congregation was planted by Daniel in the 1990's. They have moved around to various locations, and now have their own property in a new development of Ouagadougou. The building was under construction when strong winds blew down the free standing walls at the end of May 2011. Total Cost of reconstruction and completion of the building $10-12000 (walls, roof, windows doors, floor – but no ceiling, electricity or paint). The rest of the cost of the basic construction is covered by local contributions.
- $1,500 Bursaries for two Burkina Mennonite Students to attend Maranatha Bible Institute in Bobo-Dioulasso, Burkina Faso for the school year 2011-12. Total Cost: 1,727. The rest of the cost is covered by the Mennonite Church in Burkina. These two students have been selected by the national church council for pastoral training. Sidi Traore is a Sichte speaking believer from Kotoura, and Aboubakar Konde is from Orodara.

As of August 31, 2011, - % of our regular support for Sept. – Dec. has been received or pledged.
As of August 31, 2011, $536 has been donated for the church building project. Thank-you!

All amounts are in Canadian Dollars.
